MAGAZINE RELEASE PROGRAM REPORT

The PG Department of English Language and Literature organized a magazine release at the Principal's Office on 15th December 2021. The Magazine, titled 'Petrichor: The Earthy Smell that Follows Rainfall', is a collection of 29 poems on the theme of nature. The poems were contributed by the Principal, the students of Third year BA English and the teachers of the PG Department of English Language and Literature. The magazine aimed to foster a greater appreciation for the beauty and wonder of the natural world through beautiful verses and engaging content. The magazine also aims to inspire readers to become stewards of the natural world. The official release of the magazine was done by Dr. Naveen Mohan, Principal of GEMS Arts and Science College. Subeesh C., Assistant Professor, PG Department of English Language and Literature, coordinated the event and its release. The magazine submitted to the library on 20th December 2021.

The earthy Smell that follows rainfalls

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

GEMS Arts & Science College, Ramapuram

Students of Third Year
Presents

29 Collection of Poems On the Theme of Nature

Open the doors into Nature

We are not poets.
But when we share the idea of Nature in a very short lines , a poem begins there.

Letters are ours Meaning is yours

S5 BA English Students

We create our space
We manipulate our space
We destroy our space We forget the space
we live in is not ours.

Its been - provided to us for a while.

Respect the space we live in Respect the Environment.

Poem

Dr. Naveen Mohan

Principal of the College

The earth runs with the lack of water.
The trees are uprooted without mercy.
Let's make them
free from axe .
Then rain - will come...
The earth will turn to cool

Poem

Mohamed Navas K

(Vice Principal)

Hey no.... Never....
Think again and act...
Think again and act...
Far away from the wisdom...
Think again and act...

They shall obey....
But Think again and act...
They need to be here...
Think again and act...

Chop it down....
But think about You....
Think about You,
Then no no chop...
Think about You....
Then will think about Them...

Poem
Anand C

HOD

English Department

Have to burn bright flame, in the dark nights of human soul.
Not to tell him
Not to teach him But, to learn the green grasses roots in the dark soil.

Poems
Subeesh. C (Class Tutor)

she is the orgin of hope , the one who gave Adam's first breath the annihilator and the patron
devine and exquisite

Poems
Niyas

Nature..
She is every where what we see and feel .

- Often like a mother who never scold us unless we do anything wrong.
By giving all the cares she loves her children.

Birds are crying for sight
After all the great sunrise.
Plants are sneezing for bees
After all they budded.
Clouds are shouting for wind
After all the strong wind blows.
Earth's pray for fresh water After all the beautiful rain.
The romantic nightingale sung After all the dark night.
The great divine of god is only that nature.

Poems
Musthafa Yösuf

I'm proud to wear
my earth day badge.
I'll give the earth a hand.
I pick up litter, Care of trees, Recycle what I can.
I'm an earthday helper
Each and everyday.
I take care of Mother Earth,
In oh, so many ways.

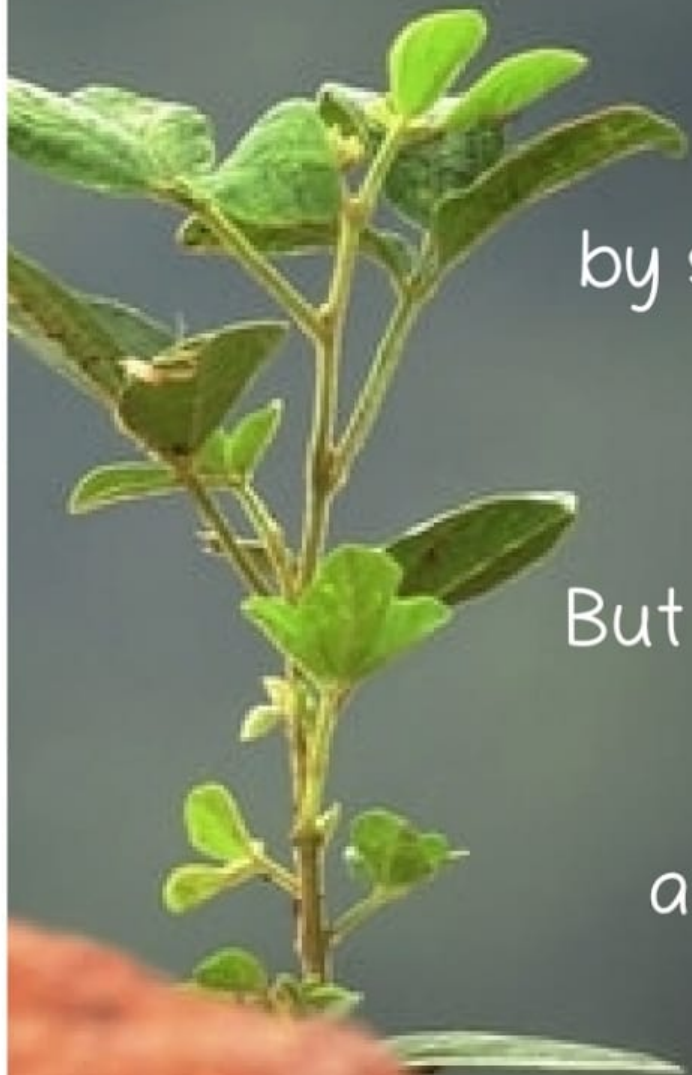

Poems
Ayisha Safa

Nature is the glory
Of every depressed minds;
We blindly fell down Into the beauty of nature;

Nature treats neither
The peasants nor the authorities equally;

There is nothing
Which can soothen us
-Non other than nature-

Poem
Dilshad

I knew that , I can grow Into a big tree.. by swallow the minerals underneath my feet itself.

But I chose to be a shrub That stay polite and still strong as much as it grows..

Poems
Rahna

You can cut down my trees

Instead I will catch your rain.

You can break my mountains

Instead I will reduce your water supply.

You can love me
then,
I will be a friend of you..

Poems

Shibila

Nature, you drive me crazy
Are you calling me?

My heart, is pounding in the wind Oh! I am melting in to you

What a sorcerer you are My heart yearns to join you

Nature you drive me crazy...

Poems
Safeela

Nature; born house.
The beautiful earth
Who feeds fresh air
The mother earth!

The naughty kids Competating to kill their origin
No complaints, the mother express Her scolds as global issues
But....Again and again She feeds her crazy kids with More love
The great 'AFFAIR'!

Poems
Sanu Shifa

Nature has its own acquisitions, blessed with eternal beauty,
And the rhythm perceives from nature, fascinating
When I perceives disrupted,
I peek at nature
And it heals my grief
So treasures of nature Ineffuctual to define in single line!

Everyday I'm grateful For the sunrise and sunset
For the forest, full of trees.

The animals, the birds
The lakes, rivers and seas I'm grateful for all we have built Our bridges and our streets.

I'm grateful for the love that binds us the wind That sometimes knocks us of our feets Today and everyday
I promise to care of our planet
And all it has to offer.

I promise to value our home by doing better I choose to celebrate earth day Today and every single day!

Poems
Hiba

Nature..
When we walk through the woods ,

We can hear the magical , whispering of the wonderful trees

Poems
Fathima Ajna

Nature is everything and-She becomes the art of God

Nature is always wears the colours of the spirit-The earth has music for those who listen

To walk in nature is to witness a thousand miracles The earth laughs in flower lightening as incredible.

Poem
Nimisha

_ Value 🌀 _

She said, it was time for life to fall apart

“You have to wait for me”,

Until it is dissolved in the dust and reborn in
YOU. 🌱

Oh nature!
You the beautiful Goddess
The world was amazed at you..
The bright green light fascinates me.
I believe that -
We live in that light.

Poem
Shafeeda

When my heart is in despair And my mind is disturbed, What heals and soothes me,
Is the beauty that nature holds.

Mesmerized, I admire how the water flows with ease, and the wind chimes in my ear
As I hear a bird sing ever so melodiously, While I watch the flowers bloom gracefully so ethereal, so serene Bliss.

Humens depend on nature, Nature gave them everything.

When they chose to harm it with words and deeds,

Their ignorance that-Nature never depend on them

Poems

Akif

What a beauty of nature around us!
What a beauty of nature around us!
One of the greatest blessings of God on us, The greatest manifestations of nature beauty, the smells, birds chirping, blossom flowers...
The most beautiful gift from God
What a beauty of nature around us!
What a beauty of nature around us!

Poems
Farveena

How wonderful is the nature !
Just joy and happiness everywhere.

How beautiful is the greenery around us !
The real blessings of God.

the one - who draws the artistic pictures

The dawn, which glistening with sunlight The dusk, which puts in the darkness

But, who cares this..?
We are blind though we have eyes.

Poems

Shaima

I can find - mother in nature.
She painting us with beauty, peace and happy.

She is supreme Spare a still moment Every once in a while Take in the beauty around Take it in with a smile
