HOW TO GET YOUR HIGH-PAID JOB IN THE IT INDUSTRY

02.04.2022

On April 2nd, 2022, the Department of Computer Application hosted a captivating webinar on the topic "How to Get Your High-Paid Job in the IT Industry," featuring esteemed speaker NP Haris. The event took place on the popular Zoom platform, drawing an enthusiastic virtual audience eager to gain insights into the world of IT job hunting. NP Haris, a seasoned industry expert, delved into the secrets of securing high-paying jobs in the rapidly evolving IT sector. The webinar began with an overview of the current IT job market, highlighting the in-demand skills and roles that employers are seeking. Mr. Haris emphasized the significance of staying updated with the latest trends and technologies to stand out from the competition.

The speaker provided invaluable tips and strategies for crafting a winning resume and cover letter that catches recruiters' attention. He stressed the importance of tailoring these documents to specific job requirements and showcasing relevant achievements. Furthermore, NP Haris shared interview techniques and behavioural aspects that make candidates more appealing to potential employers. He also touched upon effective negotiation tactics for salary and benefits, empowering participants to secure lucrative offers. The interactive session allowed attendees to ask questions and receive personalized guidance, making the webinar engaging and practical. Participants left the virtual event feeling inspired and equipped with a newfound sense of direction in their pursuit of high-paid IT jobs. Overall, the webinar proved to be a resounding success, thanks to NP Haris' expertise and the Department of Computer Applications efforts to organize an enriching experience for all aspiring IT professionals. Twenty students participated in the session.
