PROGRAM REPORT

PERAVOOR GRAMA PANCHAYAT, KANNUR-RURAL COMMUNITY CAMP

18.10.2022 TO 25.10.2022

The PG Department of Social Work and Sociology of GEMS Arts and Science College, Ramapuram organized a community living camp in association with Vibrant Community Action Network (VCAN) for first semester MSW students of batch 2022-2024 at Peravoor Gramapanchayath, Kannur. The community living camp was held from 18th October to 25th October 2022. Students were divided into six permanent committees and four-day committees for the effective, timely functioning of the camp. The camping site was set in Sree Janardhan LP school, Melmurugodi, and activities were mainly focused on the tribal colonies of Peravoor panchayath. The camp was officially inaugurated on the first day of the camp 19th October by Peravoor gramapanchayath Vice President Smt Nisha Balakrishnan. The inauguration was held in Edappara tribal colony at 10:30 AM. Ward member of the respective colony Ms. Renjusha felicitated the programme. The camp was a perfect experience for the trainees to mould professional social work in themselves and to step down into the working field and community. Trainees' cooperation with the rural community settings, limited resources, and teamwork played a good role in the meeting of assigned objectives and completion of the camp in a professional way. The camp also ignited the spirit of trainees to do better as social workers. A total of 24 trainees participated.
