PROGRAM REPORT
MAZHAVIL RURAL CAMP
24.01.2022 TO 30.01.2022

PG Department of Social Work and Sociology organized Mazhavil rural camp from 24.01.2022 to 30.01.2022. All volunteers along with the camp coordinators attended the medical camp in association with the Department of Health, Govt of Kerala. Medical camp conducted at Pullukkad colony camp inaugurated by block member. After that, the Mooppan of the Pullukad colony spoke about the history, culture, and moral values of their tribe. Later the social work trainees formed four groups and distributed allopathy and homeopathy medicines in every house. Agriculture officer, Mr. Varun handled the interactive session about vegetation in the Nellyampathy area. The session was very informative and helpful. A session on the topic “the scope of social work abroad” was handled by Mr. Sreekanth from Canada. It was an interactive session. He shared many informative messages on the topic. In the morning at 10:30 a.m., there was a session on palliatives by the Nenmara palliative society. Through this program, Mr. Jyothish Babu (health inspector Nellyampathy) took a class on health and Mrs. Seethalakshmi (palliative nurse, Nenmara) gave an awareness about palliative care and also shared her experience as a palliative nurse. With this session, campers get an awareness about palliative and palliative volunteering through this program some food kits are distributed to the palliative members.

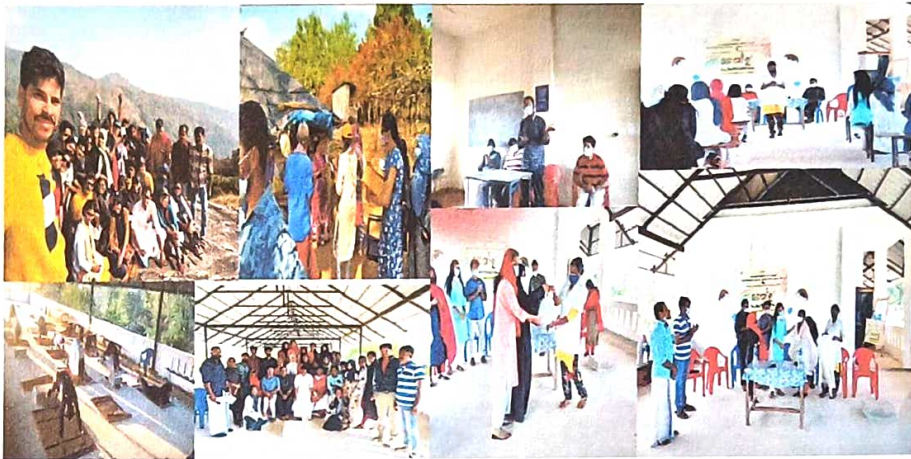

Honorable Remya Haridas and honorable MLA T Sidhique honored the teachers of Polachirakkal Higher Secondary School for their many years of service. Trekking was also arranged by the forest department to ‘Kesavan para’ and ‘Minnampara’. It was a thrilling and very wonderful experience for the social work trainees. Bird watching was done at Poothundi estate and nearby Polachirakkal. It was very helpful to get to know nature and see the unfamiliar birds. The bird-watching program was conducted by Mr. Anil. The music therapy was led by Agency supervisor Mr. Ashok. The session was an unforgettable experience for the members. It was a session that went deep into everyone’s mind. Conducted a feedback session in which, the students and camp coordinators shared their experiences of the Mazhavillu 2022 camp by the evaluation.
