ANTI DRUG AWARENESS PROGRAMME – COLLEGE STUDENTS UNION

DATE: 15.03.2019

PROGRAMME REPORT

On March 15, 2019, at 10:30 AM, a drug awareness programme focusing on the topic of "Drug Addiction" was conducted in the seminar hall of Gems Arts and Science College in Ramapuram. This vital event was organised by the College Union for the academic year 2018–19. The program was inaugurated by Poulouse, the Assistant Sub-Inspector (ASI) of Manjeri Police Station. His presence added authority and significance to the event, emphasising the importance of addressing drug-related issues in the community. The central session of the program was expertly handled by Mr. Hari, the District Vimukthi Mission Coordinator. Mr. Hari provided valuable insights and information about drug addiction, its consequences, and ways to prevent it. He emphasised the role of education and awareness in curbing the drug epidemic. The programme created awareness and empowered the attendees to combat drug addiction, making it a significant step towards building a drug-free and healthier community. The event successfully engaged the audience and left a lasting impact on all participants.

PROGRAMME REPORT

On March 13, 2019, at 10 a.m., in celebration of International Women's Day, the Women Development Cell of GEMS Arts and Science College, Ramapuram, organised a talk titled "Avalkkay" on cyber issues. The event aimed to create awareness among women about cyber-related challenges and safety measures in the digital age. The talk was delivered by Adv. Indira Nair, a prominent legal expert specializing in cyber laws and internet safety. Avalkkay provided a platform for women to gain insights into the complexities of cyber issues, including online harassment, privacy concerns, digital fraud, and legal rights. The event aimed to empower women with the knowledge and tools to navigate the online world safely and confidently. The event began with a warm welcome from Mrs. Sulabha Das, Coordinator, the Women Development Cell, emphasising the significance of understanding cyber issues in today's technology-driven world. Participants were encouraged to actively participate and raise questions during the session. Adv. Indira Nair delivered a comprehensive presentation on various cyber issues faced by women, including online stalking, identity theft, cyberbullying, and social media pitfalls. She discussed real-life case studies to illustrate the importance of vigilance and caution online.

CHILDRENS DAY CELEBRATION - COLLEGE STUDENTS UNION

PROGRAMME REPORT

The Children's Day celebration, organised by the College Union for the academic year 2018-19, was a heartwarming event that took place at AMLP School in Ramapuram on November 14, 2018. This special day was celebrated in the company of students from the nearest school, creating a joyous and memorable experience for all. Children's Day in India is a day dedicated to honouring the legacy of Jawaharlal Nehru, the country's first Prime Minister, who was a strong advocate for children's welfare and education. The celebration was an opportunity for the college community to connect with local children, share in their enthusiasm, and encourage their educational journey. The event began with a warm welcome for the visiting students, who arrived at the AMLP School with great excitement. The college union representatives, along with faculty members, organised a series of activities and games to engage the children and create a fun and memorable experience. Throughout the day, various fun and educational activities were conducted, including games, art and craft sessions, storytelling, and a small cultural program. The college students acted as mentors and role models, guiding and encouraging the young visitors. One of the highlights of the event was the distribution of small gifts, educational supplies, and snacks to the children. This gesture aimed to brighten their day and provide them with useful resources for their education. The Children's Day celebration at AMLP School was a heartwarming and enriching experience for both the college students and the visiting children. It emphasised the importance of nurturing the next generation and promoting education and well-being.

NATIONAL CANCER AWARENESS DAY: PLUCKARD MAKING COMPETITION - PG DEPARTMENT OF MICROBIOLOGY

DATE:07.11.2018

PROGRAMME REPORT

On November 7, 2018, at 2 p.m., the PG Department Of Microbiology organised a pluckard-making competition in room no. 803 to observe National Cancer Awareness Day. The event garnered participation from ten enthusiastic individuals who aimed to raise awareness about cancer and its prevention. The competition provided a creative platform for the participants to design pluckards conveying powerful messages related to cancer awareness. Each participant showcased their artistic skills and knowledge by incorporating thought-provoking slogans, facts, and images on their pluckards. The event created a positive and interactive environment as the participants exchanged ideas and shared their personal experiences related to cancer awareness. The competition not only promoted awareness about the disease but also emphasised the significance of early detection, healthy lifestyles, and support for cancer patients. By organising the pluckard-making competition on National Cancer Awareness Day, the PG department of Microbiology successfully contributed to spreading knowledge and encouraging proactive measures against cancer. The event served as a reminder that education, awareness, and support are essential in the fight against cancer.

GANDHI JAYANTHI DAY CELEBRATION - COLLEGE STUDENTS UNION

PROGRAMME REPORT

Gandhi Jayanti, celebrated on October 2nd each year, is a day to honour the birthday of Mahatma Gandhi, the father of the nation. In 2018, the College Union for the academic year 2018-19 organised a special celebration at our college, which included an essay writing competition, to commemorate this great leader and his principles of non-violence and truth. The Gandhi Jayanti celebration began with a solemn inauguration, where students, faculty, and staff members paid their respects to a portrait of Mahatma Gandhi. This marked the commencement of the event, setting the tone for the day. A central feature of the celebration was the essay-writing competition. Students from various departments participated enthusiastically, showcasing their knowledge of Gandhi's life and principles. The competition had two categories: one for junior students and another for seniors, allowing participants to express their views on topics related to Gandhian philosophy. To provide a deeper understanding of Mahatma Gandhi's life and his role in India's struggle for independence, a guest speaker, typically a historian or a scholar, was invited to deliver a lecture. The speaker highlighted the significance of Gandhi's contributions to the nation and the world. Winners of the essay writing competition were recognised and awarded prizes. This not only encouraged students to explore the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi but also promoted their writing skills. To add an artistic touch to the event, students presented cultural performances such as songs, dances, and short skits that were inspired by Gandhi's life and his principles. These presentations paid tribute to his enduring legacy.

REST ROOM INAUGURATION - COLLEGE STUDENTS UNION

PROGRAMME REPORT

On July 20, 2018, a significant inaugural ceremony took place at GEMS Arts and Science College to mark the opening of a new restroom facility dedicated to promoting women's empowerment. The event was graced by the presence of the esteemed principal, Dr. Naveen Mohan, sir, and was a significant step towards providing enhanced facilities for female students and staff. The Restroom Inaugural Ceremony was organised with a dual purpose: to improve the overall infrastructure of the institution and to underline the importance of gender equality and women's empowerment. The event aimed to create awareness about the significance of equal facilities for all and to emphasise the role of women in education and society. The restroom facility had undergone a comprehensive renovation, making it more spacious, hygienic, and equipped with modern amenities to ensure the comfort and convenience of female students and staff. Dr. Naveen Mohan, sir, the respected principal, inaugurated the restroom facility. His presence underscored the institution's commitment to women's empowerment and gender equality. Inspirational Speech: Dr. Naveen Mohan, sir, delivered an inspiring speech during the ceremony, highlighting the importance of providing equal opportunities and facilities to women in education and society. His words resonated with the audience and instilled a sense of empowerment. Student Participation: Female students actively participated in the event, sharing their thoughts on the new restroom facility and expressing their gratitude for the institution's commitment to their well-being and empowerment. A symbolic pledge for gender equality and women's empowerment was taken by attendees, emphasizing the institution's dedication to promoting gender parity in all aspects of academic life. The ceremony also served as a platform to announce future initiatives aimed at furthering women's empowerment within the institution, such as scholarships, mentorship programmes, and workshops. The Restroom Inaugural Ceremony held on July 20, 2018, was a momentous occasion that not only improved the infrastructure of the institution but also sent a powerful message about the importance of women's empowerment.

DEPARTMENT OF MICROBIOLOGY

DATE: 19.06.2018

PROGRAMME REPORT

On June 19, 2018, at 2 p.m., the PG department of Microbiology organised a poster-making competition to commemorate World Blood Donors Day. The event took place in room no. 408 and saw the participation of five talented individuals. The competition aimed to raise awareness about the importance of blood donation and to honour the selfless individuals who contribute to this noble cause. The participants demonstrated their creativity and artistic skills as they crafted posters highlighting the significance of blood donation and encouraging others to become donors. The posters depicted powerful messages, vibrant visuals, and persuasive slogans, all aimed at inspiring individuals to donate blood and save lives. The competition provided an opportunity for the participants to express their support for blood donation and share their knowledge about its impact on society. The event also facilitated discussions among the contestants, fostering a sense of unity and shared purpose. Through the poster-making competition on World Blood Donors Day, the PG department of Microbiology successfully promoted the value of blood donation and acknowledged the invaluable contribution of donors. The event effectively conveyed the message that every donation counts and can make a life-saving difference.
