TOPIC- HOW TO PREPARE FOR UPSC

PROGRAMME REPORT

PG Department of Social Work and Sociology organized a programme on How to Prepare UPSC for students on September 26, 2022 in room number 703 at 09.30 am. There were 46 students participated for the programme. The resource person of the programme was Ms. Ashitha RJ, Assistant Professor, Department of of Social Work and Sociology, GEMS Arts and Science College, Ramapuram.

Preparing for the UPSC (Union Public Service Commission) exam as a college student requires a systematic and disciplined approach. Begin by understanding the exam pattern, syllabus, and stages involved. Devote focused time to cover each subject comprehensively. Utilize standard reference books, current affairs magazines, and online resources for study materials. Create a well-structured study timetable that balances study sessions, revisions, and mock tests. Regularly practice previous year's question papers and take mock tests to gauge your progress and time management skills.

The students were informed to stay updated with current affairs, both national and international, and develop analytical and writing skills. Join online forums or study groups to discuss topics and gain insights. Consider enrolling in coaching classes if needed. Maintain a healthy lifestyle with regular exercise and proper sleep. They were informed to believe in their abilities and stay motivated throughout the journey. Consistency, patience, and a positive mindset are keys to UPSC success.

TOPIC- HOW TO FACE PG ENTRANCE EXAM PROGRAMME REPORT

PG Department of Social Work and Sociology organized a programme on 'How to Face PG Entrance Exam on 17 March 2022 at room 902 at 11.am to 12.30 pm. There were 45 students participated in this programme. The resource person of the programme was Mr. Arun K, Head and Assistant Professor, Department of Social Work and Sociology, GEMS Arts and Science College, Ramapuram.

Facing a Postgraduate (PG) Entrance Exam requires a strategic and focused approach from students. Begin by understanding the exam pattern, syllabus, and marking scheme. Organize study materials, textbooks, and resources according to the syllabus. Develop a detailed study schedule that allocates time to cover each subject thoroughly.

They were informed to revise and practice with previous year's question papers and mock tests to gauge their preparedness and time management. Utilize online resources and participate in study groups for discussions and knowledge sharing. Focus on strengthening your conceptual understanding rather than rote memorization.

Prioritize self-care, including adequate sleep, balanced nutrition, and regular exercise, to maintain physical and mental well-being. Manage stress through relaxation techniques like meditation or yoga.

Stay optimistic and believe in their capabilities. Seek guidance from mentors or subject experts whenever necessary. By staying disciplined, determined, and well-prepared, they can confidently face PG Entrance Exams and increase their chances of success.

TOPIC: ORIENTATION FOR UGC JRF/NET

PROGRAMME REPORT

PG Department of Commerce organized an orientation programme for UGC JRF/NET on July 10, 2018 at 10 am, in the seminar hall, GEMS Arts and Science College. There were 25 PG students attended the programme. The program aimed to provide guidance and information to the participants regarding the UGC JRF (Junior Research Fellowship) and NET (National Eligibility Test) exams. The resource person for the event was Mohammed Ashraf, an esteemed Associate Professor of the PG Department of Commerce from our College.

The orientation programme commenced at 10:00 AM with an introduction by the organizing committee. Mohammed Ashraf then took the stage and began his presentation. He started by explaining the significance of the UGC JRF and NET exams and how they serve as important qualifications for pursuing research and teaching careers in higher education. The presentation covered various aspects of the exams, including the eligibility criteria, application process, syllabus, and examination pattern. Mr. Ashraf provided valuable insights into the preparation strategies, recommended study materials, and time management techniques to maximize success in the exams. Following the presentation, an interactive session was conducted to address any queries or doubts from the participants. Mr. Ashraf patiently answered questions and provided clarifications on specific topics.

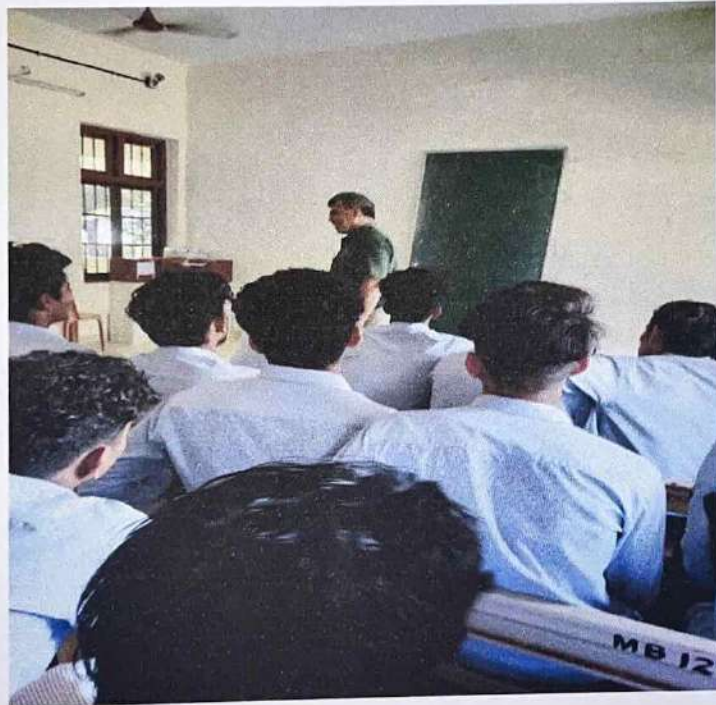

The orientation program concluded with a vote of thanks by the final year PG student expressing gratitude to Mohammed Ashraf for his valuable insights and guidance. Overall, the orientation program was a success in achieving its objectives of providing valuable information and guidance to the participants.
