PROGRAMME REPORT

CHANNEL VISIT

On January 25, 2023, a group of Semester 5 BA English students, under the auspices of the PG department of English, embarked on a channel visit to Flowers TV. This report aims to provide an overview of the visit, its objectives, activities undertaken, and the insights gained during the visit. The students participated in a range of activities, including: a. Studio Tour: The students were given a guided tour of the Flowers TV studio, where they had the opportunity to witness the production process of news and entertainment programs. Students engaged in discussions and Q&A sessions with Flowers TV journalists, anchors, and technicians. They gained insights into the challenges and rewards of working in the media industry. Students had the privilege of observing a live news broadcast, where they witnessed the coordination required for delivering news to a wide audience. d. Feedback and Reflection: After the visit, students were encouraged to share their feedback and reflections on the experience. The channel visit to Flowers TV on January 25, 2023, was a valuable and educational experience for Semester 5 BA English students. It offered them a glimpse into the world of media and broadcasting, enabling them to better understand the practical aspects of their field of study. We express our gratitude to Flowers TV for accommodating our visit and providing students with an enriching opportunity.
