INTRODUCTION

Student induction program is a vital orientation that acquaints newcomers with academic policies, campus resources, faculty details and community culture. SIP fosters a smooth transition into college life, promoting engagement and support empowering students to navigate their educational journey with confidence and clarity.

IQAC ensures a seamless transition by acquainting students with campus facilities, academic structures, and co-curricular opportunities. In the second tier, Individual departments foster deeper engagement through workshops, mentorship, and ongoing support, emphasizing holistic growth. This collaborative initiative embodies a comprehensive approach, blending orientation essentials with sustained guidance, laying the groundwork for students to excel academically.

DAY 1

The Student Induction Program (SIP) at GEMS College commenced with resounding enthusiasm and a spirit of anticipation on September 14, 2022. The inaugural ceremony marked the beginning of an enriching journey for our new cohort of students, setting the tone for an immersive academic experience. Welcome speech was delivered by Dr. Naveen Mohan (Principal) and Presidential address by Shri. M Vasudevan (Vice Chairman). The program was inaugurated by Shri. Manjalamkuzhi Ali MLA (Honourable Chairman). The college administration event commenced with a warm welcome extended by the college administration, emphasizing the significance of this program in shaping the academic trajectory of each student. Distinguished guests and faculty members shared inspiring insights, urging the newcomers to embrace learning, exploration, and community engagement.

DAY 2

On the second day of the student induction program dated September 15, 2022, a series of insightful sessions were conducted. The day commenced with a compelling "Bridging Session" led by Head of the Department, Shinsy.P. Her comprehensive presentation provided students with an overview of the department's objectives and expectations, aiding in their smooth transition into the academic sphere.

Following this, CP Saleem, District Coordinator of Child Line, Malappuram, engaged the attendees in an interactive session. Saleem's discourse delved into crucial aspects of child welfare, fostering a thought-provoking discussion on societal responsibilities and support mechanisms for vulnerable youth.

The program culminated with an enriching session by Dr. Sijimol, Assistant Professor from the PG Department of General Biotechnology. Dr. Sijimol's discourse offered insights into the field's advancements, igniting curiosity among the students about the potential impact and avenues within biotechnology. Overall, the day featured diverse perspectives and knowledge-sharing, empowering students with a broader understanding of their academic journey ahead.

DAY 6

The induction program on research methods in biotechnology, spearheaded by Shinsy.P, Head of the PG Department of General Biotechnology, was an insightful endeavor. The session, attended by enthusiastic students, delved into diverse ways of conducting research in biotech. Shinsy.P meticulously navigated through experimental protocols, literature reviews, and cutting-edge tools, igniting a passion for methodological rigor. Interactive discussions and practical demonstrations fostered a dynamic learning environment, empowering students with foundational skills crucial for scientific inquiry. The program, a testament to Shinsy.P's expertise, ignited a promising trajectory for aspiring biotechnologists.

DAY 7

As the valedictory session approaches, there's an undeniable air of accomplishment and reflection. Professor Mohd Ashraf, Vice Principal Academics, gave the valedictory speech. In his address, Professor Ashraf stands tall, his words a blend of wisdom, inspiration, and warmth. His speech, delivered with a resonant voice that commands attention, carries the weight of experience and the sincerity of someone deeply invested in nurturing young minds.

He begins by acknowledging the collective journey undertaken by the students—the challenges conquered, the knowledge gained, and the friendships forged. With a reflective tone, he encourages the participants to pause and appreciate the growth they've undergone during their time in the induction program. Feedbacks were collected online and certificates were provided for the completed students.

STUDENT INDUCTION PROGRAMME

PROGRAMME REPORT: DAY 1

Resolved to conduct a Student Orientation Programme in Association with Student Induction Programme (Dheeksharamb). Purpose of Student Induction Programme is to help new students adjust and feel comfortable in the new environment, inculcate in them the ethos and culture of the institution, help them build bonds with other students and faculty members, and expose them to a sense of larger purpose and self exploration. Session was organised by PG Department of English Language and Literature. Session was coordinated by Mr. Rihas KT, Assistant Professor, PG Department of English Language and Literature. He Introduced importance of English Language to the new aspirants of English literature. He added language skills are the basic competencies that the talents of today's society must possess. In modern society, the interaction between people is mostly achieved by language. The basic knowledge of language is the basis of language use. Programme conducted on 1st November 2021 at 10:00 to 12:00 pm. The session winded up after an interactive session of all the students and teachers of English Department. More than 38 students attended the session.

PROGRAMME REPORT: DAY 2

The "Verse Ventures: Unveiling the World of English Literature" Induction Programme unfolded as an immersive journey into the rich tapestry of literary exploration. Participants embarked on a quest to unravel the nuances of English literature, delving into the essence of diverse genres, periods, and literary forms. Participants delved into the intricacies of renowned literary works, gaining insights into the power of words and the profound impact of literature on culture and society. The session was organized by PG Department of English Language and Literature and coordinated by DivyaB Assistant Professor PG Department of English Language and Literature. She navigated the attendees through the rich tapestry of English literature, dissecting key themes, analyzing classic and contemporary texts, and engaging in thought-provoking discussions. The sessions were carefully designed to foster a deeper appreciation for the nuances of language and storytelling. Participants were encouraged to express their interpretations, fostering a dynamic exchange of ideas. Programme conducted on 2nd November 2021 at 10:00 am to 12:00 pm. Mrs. Divya B covered all the aspects of English language. The induction successfully ignited a passion for the written word, leaving participants poised to embark on their own literary journeys with newfound enthusiasm and knowledge. A total number of 54 students attended the programme. Both first year BA and MA English students were present in the session. The session took place via Google meet. And it wound up after an interactive session with students and teachers of English Department.

PROGRAMME REPORT (BRIDGE SESSION): DAY 5

PG Department of English Language and Literature organized a bridge session on 'WAY TO THE WORLD OF LITERATURE' on November 8th 2021 on Google Meet. The Session was handled by Mr. Ebin Thomas, Assistant Professor, PG Department of English Language and Literature, GEMSArts and Science College. There were 44 students participated in this programme.

Embarking on a journey into the world of literature can be a rewarding and enriching experience. A bridge course can serve as a valuable introduction, providing the students with the foundational knowledge and skills to navigate this vast and diverse realm. The resource person who suggested bridge course outline to help the students to get started. He introduced the literature as following. He also informed them to read short stories from various genres (e.g., science fiction, fantasy, realism) to read poetry: classic and contemporary examples. He also introduced literary movements and genres like romanticism modernism and postmodernism. He also explored novel and informed them to read a classic novel and a contemporary novel. This bridge session is a flexible guide. Feel free to adapt it based on their interests and the pace at which their group is comfortable progressing. The key is to foster a love for literature and critical thinking skills that will serve them well on their literary journey. Vote of thanks expressed by Mr. Vijayesh Babu.P, Assistant Professor, PG Department of English

PROGRAMME REPORT

The Department of Management Studies successfully conducted an Orientation Program on November 02/11/2020-6/11/2020 through Google meet. The event was well-attended, with a total of 58 students.

PROGRAMME REPORT: DAY-1

The session was handled by Mr. Abdul Khader V, HOD, Assistant Professor, Department of Management Studies at 9.30 a.m. through google meet. The program aimed to provide an overview of the department's courses, facilities, and career prospects in the management field. Interactive sessions were conducted by faculty members, offering valuable insights and answering queries from the attendees.

PROGRAMME REPORT: DAY-3

Ms. Ruksana P M, Assistant Professor, Department of Management Studies handled the program, gave the Bridge sessions to the students. The session started at 9.30 a.m through Google meet,that embraced the virtual format with specialized online workshops covering the foundation of subject knowledge to students along with career guidance, extracurricular involvement, and student wellness. The digital nature of these workshops allowed for dynamic presentations, interactive polls, and virtual discussions.The introduction of a virtual mentorship program connected new students with senior mentors through video conferencing. This initiative aimed to recreate the personal connection virtually, fostering support and guidance in the online learning environment.Overall, the Orientation Program served as an informative platform for students interested in management, helping them make informed decisions about their academic and professional pursuits. It was a new experience for them since they have not attended any online meetings.

STUDENT ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

DAY 1 INAUGURATION PROGRAMME REPORT

The inauguration of the student orientation program at GEMS Arts and Science College on June 26, 2018, marked a significant event in the institution's calendar. Mr. Naveen Mohan, the esteemed principal, delivered a warm welcome speech, setting the tone for the day's festivities. The inauguration ceremony was graced by Shri. Manjalamkuzhi Ali, MLA, distinguished chairman of Gems College, who officially inaugurated the program.

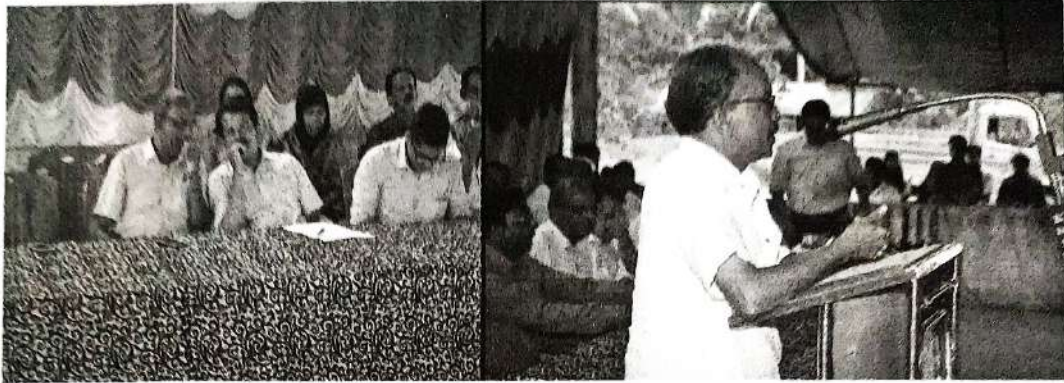

The event witnessed felicitation by the vice-chairman and several esteemed board members. The Parents-Teachers Association (PTA) construction was successfully completed, adding to the infrastructure development of the college. The ceremony concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by the vice-principal, expressing gratitude to all participants and highlighting the collaborative efforts that made the event a success.

The inauguration not only marked the beginning of the student orientation program but also reflected the spirit of unity and progress within the GEMS Arts and Science College community. The presence of prominent figures in education and administration underscored the institution's commitment to providing a holistic learning experience for its students.
