GIVE WINGS TO YOUR DREAMS: DRIVE WITH GEMS

27.02.2023

On February 27, 2023, the Women Development Cell, in association with IQAC, and in collaboration with K C Motor Driving School, Perinthalmanna, organized the inauguration of a Motor Driving Class at GEMS Arts and Science College. The initiative aimed to empower women with essential driving skills, fostering independence, and enhancing personal safety.

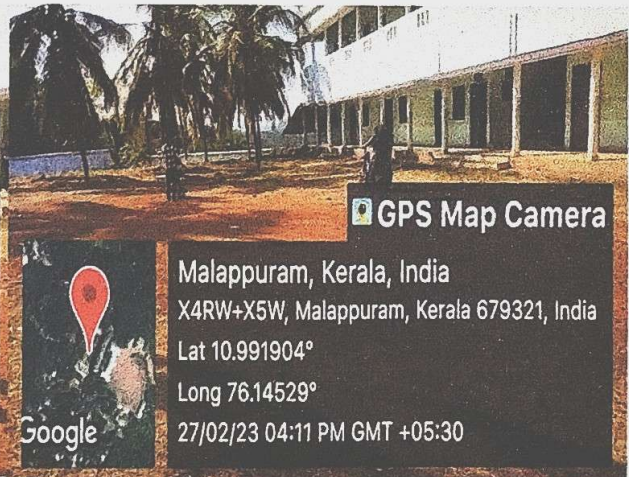

The event began with an inaugural ceremony, graced by Dr. Naveen Mohan, College Principal, representatives from the Women Development Cell and IQAC, and instructors from K C Motor Driving School. A Linkage was signed between the college and K C Motor Driving School, formalizing the collaboration and outlining the details of the driving class, including the curriculum, schedule, and safety protocols. A total of 26 participants were present in the ceremony. Following the inauguration, interested participants were able to register and enrol in the driving class. The enrolment process included document verification, scheduling of classes, and distribution of course materials.

The inauguration of the Motor Driving Class marked a significant step towards empowering women in the college community and extended to society. By offering practical driving skills, the initiative aimed to enhance personal safety, boost confidence, and promote independence among female students and staff. The collaboration with K C Motor Driving School ensured professional training and a structured learning environment. After 2 months driving classes 5 students ( Fathima Farsana C - fourth semester B.Sc Mathematics, Najiya Thasni K - fourth semester BA English, Raniya Risvana - fourth semester BA English, Shamna A - fourth semester BA English, Fahmida Jabin - fourth semester BA English) 2 teaching faculties (Nusrath Shumna - PG Department of Commerce and Shameema M- PG Department of Microbiology ), one non teaching faculty (Sindu M) and one neighboring girl ( Anju Krishna ) were got the driving license.
