PROGRAM REPORT

LECTURE ON RESEARCH METHODOLOGY FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES

22.05.2023

The PG Department of Social Work and Sociology, GEMS Arts and Science College conducted a lecture on social science research methodology for BSW students at Safa College of Arts and Science, Pookkattiri, on May 22, 2023 (10.30 a.m. to 2.30 p.m.), and 49 Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) students participated. Dr. Anshad VK, Head, Department of Social Work, Safa College of Arts and Sciences, Pookkattiri, welcomed all the participants to the program and the resource person for the program, Dr. Sulfikar C, Head and Assistant Prof. Social Work, PG Department of Social Work and Sociology, GEMS Arts and Science College lead the session. The lecture on social science research methodology for Social Sciences was an enlightening session, providing a comprehensive overview of essential concepts and techniques in the field. The key takeaways can be summarised as follows:

1. Research Paradigms: The lecture emphasized the significance of choosing the right research paradigm, whether positivist, interpretive, or critical, based on the research question and objectives. Understanding the ontological and epistemological assumptions behind each paradigm is crucial.
2. Research Design: The lecture delved into various research designs, including experimental, survey, case study, and ethnographic methods. It highlighted the importance of selecting an appropriate design that aligns with the research goals.
3. Data Collection: The lecture discussed various data collection methods, such as interviews, surveys, observations, and document analysis. It emphasised the importance of ensuring data validity, reliability, and ethics.
4. Data Analysis: The lecture introduced different data analysis techniques, including quantitative and qualitative methods. It stressed the significance of data coding, thematic analysis, and statistical analysis based on research objectives.
