Subject: Request letter for signing linkage

Sir/ Madam,

I am writing to express our interest in signing a linkage between our organizations. We believe that this partnership will benefit both our institutions and help us achieve our respective goals. As you are aware, our organization has been actively involved in promoting education and providing students with quality learning opportunities. We are committed to building partnerships with like-minded institutions and we believe that your institute shares the same values.

The proposed collaboration will outline the terms including but not limited to: Facilitating exchange programs for students and faculty members for Sharing knowledge and expertise in areas of mutual interest offering joint training and development programs creating opportunities for professional development

We are confident that this partnership will be beneficial for both our organizations and help us achieve our common goals. We look forward to discussing the details of the collaboration and finalizing the agreement as soon as possible.

Hoping a positive response.

Yours Faithfully

Jayasree K G
